Position Title: Day Camp Counsellor

The Mariners Centre is a multi-purpose sport, recreation, and event facility in Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, Canada. This is an exciting time for the Mariners Centre. In October 2022, the Mariners Centre confirmed funding for a historic $30M expansion plan that, when complete, will establish the centre as a vibrant regional hub – adding Aquatics, Fitness, and Multi-Purpose Spaces to the existing facility's two ice rinks and event hosting spaces. A community-wide fundraising campaign has been planned to help ensure the facility is fully equipped and meets our needs for generations to come.

To support our Summer Day Camp programming, Mariners Centre is delighted to offer the position of Day Camp Counsellor. Reporting to the Day Camp Leader, the Day Camp Counsellor is a vital member of the team, ensuring our summer day camps are executed smoothly, with campers continuously engaged and participating in activity. The Day Camp Counsellor will lead camp activities and games, ensuring campers experience meets our standard of excellence. The Day Camp Counsellor will be responsible for supporting in the set up and take down of all necessary equipment and supplies, ensuring the camp environment is clean and safe at all times. Working with the Day Camp Leader they will contribute to teaching, guiding, and encouraging campers throughout the season as we build our day camp program.

The Day Camp Counsellor role is a Temporary Full-Time position with the Mariners Centre.
